Terms for both packages are simply that you stay at least one night at one of the other Webster Hotels, but with each hotel strategically placed in accessible and beautiful Scottish countryside, why not visit all three.

At Raemoir, enjoy the Royal Deeside area including Balmoral. Perhaps take in the famous Highland games at Braemar or the celebrity version at Lonach. The Speyside whisky trail is easily toured whilst Stonehaven and Dunottar Castle are on the coast and also well worth a visit. For gardeners there are the delights of Crathes Castle and the majestic Fyvie Castle. Aberdeen has an excellent airport with frequent flights to most UK local airports and a wide variety of European ones too.

Perhaps drive through Glen Shee in the Cairngorm National Park to Alyth and the Lands of Loyal Hotel. Take a day to enjoy Blair Castle and the House of Bruar, perhaps enjoy in a show at the Pitlochry festival theatre and also visit Dunkeld cathedral. Perth is a beautiful city to enjoy a days shopping, perhaps incorporate a visit to Scone Palace, the crowning place of Scottish Kings. A day at the races is always fun or may be a round of golf at one of the beautiful local courses.

From Lands of Loyal it is not far to journey to Castleton House Hotel, here, just over the border in to Angus you find yourself very close to the great Glamis Castle that was the family home of the late queen mother. The coast is not far away and nor is the city of Dundee. Castleton is the smallest but the first of the three Webster Hotels and as such is home to the owners of the group Mr and Mrs David Webster.
